One Step At A Time

Synopsis

"One Step at a Time" is a book, keepsake and guide for coping with a child's hospitalization. It offers a unique way for a parent to ask the right questions, record important medical information, and express joy, fear and hope during a very difficult time. And most important, it encourages parents to take care of themselves physically, emotionally and spiritually.

Customer Reviews

This is such a helpful tool! Having spent time with families working through moving from shock to advocacy, this book is a tremendous help - taking families by the hand and walking through seemingly minor details which have major impact both medically and personally. Well done!
